

REDWOOD EMPIRE SHEEP DOG ASSOCIATION

RESDA Judging Clinic

Saturday, March 30, 2019 | 10:00 AM

Mendocino County Fairgrounds; Boonville, CA

This clinic will be held in the rodeo arena at the Mendocino County Fairgrounds, using the fair's RESDA-style course. Two RESDA High Point Champions, Steve Moody and Colleen Duncan, will lead the clinic, while selected handlers take turns working "three fresh sheep" through our proprietary course. Spectators will try their hand at scoring the sheep dog work, then compare scores and discuss judging criteria.

We hold clinics like this one to ensure our judges use consistent judging and scoring criteria. These clinics are also a great way for new and prospective handlers to better understand how to succeed at our trials.

Founded by Mendocino County sheep ranchers in 1947, the Redwood Empire Sheep Dog Association uses a unique course, rules and judging system. Because our course and rules are unique, our qualified Open handlers take turns judging at each of our trials.

This clinic is open to RESDA members only, with free parking and admission. The annual fee for membership is $25. A membership application is provided below. We will accept day of event memberships and look forward to seeing you there!

DIRECTIONS TO JUDGING CLINIC: Hwy 101: Take Hwy 128 off ramp (North of Cloverdale). Go west on Hwy 128 to Boonville. Continue straight for ½ mile past the Boonville-Ukiah Road intersection. Turn left at first road into the Mendocino County Fairgrounds. Google Maps: www.tinyurl.com/mendocino-fairgrounds
